

Character: Who is your story about?

Label with name, personality words, and how they look

[Example: Tom, pig, plump and pink, grumpy and mean]

Setting: Where does your story take place?

Label with sight, sound and season words.

[Example: farm, fall, colored leaves, rain and mud, scarecrows, pumpkins, corn stalks]

Problem: What goes wrong that makes the story interesting?

Label the characters and what goes wrong. This may take more than one picture, like a comic strip.

[Example: Pig, mud puddle, grumpy face – the farm is muddy, and Tom is a pig that doesn't like to get dirty]

Solution: How the problem gets resolved.

Label the character(s) and key events that help to end the story

[Example: Tom, galoshes, smile, farmer, rain – The farmer gives Tom galoshes to keep the mud off of his feet, he is happy even though it is still raining.]
